

Miss Cassatt's Water Colors On Exhibition

An exhibition of water colors and dry points by Mary Cassatt at the Durrant-Buell Galleries, No. 12 East Fifty-seventh Street, will remain open until April 20. Miss Cassatt is extremely fond of drawing and painting a mother and child. Many of her beautiful pictures are based upon such groups. She also paints individual children with penetrating and remarkable skill.

In her numbers 18 and 19 she depicts a mother sitting with her child, a mother and child, and a mother and child. The subjects of the pictures are the mother and child, the mother and child, and the mother and child. The subjects of the pictures are the mother and child, the mother and child, and the mother and child.

Miss Cassatt again triumphs in her No. 41, where the mother kneels with her child. Her number 42, where the mother is seated with her child, is also a masterpiece. Her number 43, where the mother is seated with her child, is also a masterpiece. Her number 44, where the mother is seated with her child, is also a masterpiece.
